The School's vision and values in relation to school attendance:	This Statement of Strategy re school attendance affirms St.Paul's Secondary School's commitment to the promotion of high levels of attendance among its students. In St. Paul's Secondary School we are committed to encouraging our students to develop a pattern of regular and punctual attendance so that they can fully benefit from the education provided. Catholic education is a lifelong process of human growth and development. In order that each student can grow and develop holistically, it is critical that (s)he attends school regularly and participates in all aspects of school life. Regular attendance facilitates continuity and incremental progression in a student's learning as well as ensuring that each student can benefit fully from all the opportunities that St. Paul's offer. This in turn can enhance the self-esteem of each individual. By participating in school life, students can feel a sense of belonging to the school community. All stake-holders including parents, students, staff and Board members are expected to co-operate in the successful implementation of this Strategy.
The School's high expectations around attendance:	This Statement of Strategy aims to build a culture of high expectations among all staff and with every student for the student's learning participation and attendance. Attendance at school is a legal requirement and St. Paul's has a legal obligation to monitor, record and where necessary, make reports to the National Education Welfare Board (NEWB) in the situations as named in the Education Welfare Act 2000. In St. Paul's students are expected to attend and be present punctually every school day i.e. on Monday and Tuesday from 9am – 3.50pm and on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday from 9am – 3.10pm. Furthermore, students are encouraged to take part in extra-curricular activities and be active participants in all aspects of school life. Students are reminded by staff that students can achieve their full potential – "be the best that can be" by attending all of their classes regularly; that consistent attendance enhances a better understanding of material being taught which in turn leads to better results and attainments.

	The students are also made aware of the implications of irregular attendance. Attendance is promoted through our pastoral care programme and at school assemblies. Absences due to term-time holidays/reasons other than illness are strongly discouraged.
How attendance will be monitored:	An accurate record of all students' attendance at St. Paul's and the reasons for any failure to attend is maintained in the school. - Attendance is accurately recorded at the beginning of each morning by class teachers on e-Portal. - A master list of absent students is posted daily in the staffroom. Teachers can check this list against their own roll calls. A text is sent to parents of students who are absent where no phone call has been received. - The school must be notified of all planned absences. - Unplanned absences e.g. Illness must be notified by phone to the secretary on the morning of the absence. - When the student returns to school following an absence the "explanation of absence" slip at the back of the student journal must be completed and signed by a parent/guardian outlining the number of days absent and the reason for the absence. - This must be handed into the school secretary on their first day back at school. - Any student who arrives late for 1st class must go to reception and sign in the 'Late Book'. - Notes re lateness are requested. - The secretary changes the record on the rollcall re that student from 'absent' to 'late'. - The secretary checks that each teacher has submitted their roll call at 9am. Reminders are given to teachers who fail to submit the rollcall. - In the event of a student having to leave the school grounds during the school day, a note signed by parents/guardians must be handed in at reception before 9am. Parents/Guardians must present themselves to the school secretary at reception to collect the student. The parent/guardian and student must the 'Sign Out/In Book' as appropriate. - No student may absent themselves from any class for any reason without the teacher's permission. If a student is ill, they should report to the school secretary at reception with their teacher's permission. Contact may be made with parents/guardians, where necessary. • The school may telephone/text a parent/guardian to notify of or verify a student's absence. • The school will communicate with parents/guardians of students whose attendance/punctuality is a matter of concern. • The school will notify the NEWB if a student is absent for 20 days or more within a school year or for reasons as outlined in the Education Welfare Act 2000. • Teachers, Year Heads, and Deputy Principal monitor attendance. Attendance is a topic discussed at every Year Head meeting with Principal. It is also discussed at Pastoral Care/Support meetings. Teachers alert year heads if there are concerns about student absences. • Electronic roll calls to be taken after every class with senior students. • Deputy Principal and Principal meet weekly re attendance. • School reports contain the number of days a student has been absent and has been late to school. • Parents are encouraged to contact school if there are any matters of concern re attendance.

Summary of the main elements of the School's approach to attendance:	St. Paul's Secondary School encourages and expects high levels of attendance at school by its students. Every effort is made to provide a supportive, positive and welcoming school environment. Every effort is made to identify and address the needs of each child re student engagement with school. In order to promote high levels of student engagement and attendance, the following is the approach the school has taken:
Target setting and Targets:	Attendance targets provide a clear measure of improvements in attendance levels in the school. They are a way of checking the impact and benefit of the attendance strategies. • They raise awareness about attendance amount staff, students and parents. • They provide a sense of commitment to attendance and a sense of pride in school achievements. • They provide an ethos of continuing improvement.
Targets for 2017/2018:	• Individual specific attendance targets to be set with certain students. • To improve attendance by 5% in each year group.

	• To reduce the number of students who were absent for 20 days or more by 5%. • To reduce absenteeism by 5% on an annual basis (1 day for each student). • Individual specific attendance targets to be set with certain students.
The Whole School Approach:	In this school attendance matters. The whole school community is committed to promoting high levels of attendance and participation amongst students. The Board will submit this Statement of Strategy re Attendance to the Patron/Trustee – CEIST. The Board of Management will play an active part in reviewing and developing the Statement of Strategy. It must ensure that all of the measures required to promote and support attendance are in place and set out in the Strategy of Attendance. The Principal under the direction of the Board of Management leads and guides the work of the Statement of Strategy and will ensure its communication and co-ordination. • In the school teachers, staff, Principal and Deputy Principal endeavour to create and maintain a positive, friendly and safe environment for all. • Parents are informed of the school's obligations as outlined in the Education Welfare Act 2000 at Open Information Evenings and in the school's Code of Behaviour. The importance of attendance is stressed and emphasised during assemblies during the year. • The school furnishes Parents/Guardians with a school report two times a year (some years receive progress reports as well), which includes details of a student's record of attendance. • Attendance is also discussed with class teachers at relevant Parent Teacher Meetings. Support is given to students who have difficulty with or who are reluctant to engage with certain aspects of the school curriculum. • The school has a uniform policy. This avoids social labelling and financial hardship. • A text is sent to parent/guardian if a student is absent. • Parents/Guardians are contacted by the school if there is a concern re absenteeism.

	• Parents/Guardians are contacted by the school when a student's absence exceeds 20 days in the same school year and Túusla is also informed.
Promoting Good Attendance:	The following approaches will be taken to promote good attendance: • The importance of good attendance is highlighted at assemblies.; • Attendance is discussed at Parent Teacher Meetings, at Student Council Meetings and is an item on the agenda of Parents' Association Meetings going forward. • Teachers positively affirm attendance while taking rollcall. • A record of attendance is included in school reports. • The Student Council have a 'Wellness Week' each year which promotes positive mental health and good nutrition for students. This helps to encourage and help students to stay well. • They also fundraise to make the school environment more appealing. • Attendance is an item discussed at Board Meetings and Staff Meetings. • A prize is given for the best attenders in Transition Year.
Responding to Poor Attendance:	Early intervention is key to promoting good attendance. Early identification of 'at risk' students by looking at absences detailed in Education Passports from Primary Schools and our school term reports for other years provides the information for timely, positive intervention and support. Timely and accurate information allows us to act quickly to intervene before a habit of poor attendance takes hold. • At the beginning of the Academic Year parents of students who have had 20 or more days absence the previous year will be contacted by the school. • Attendance meetings held weekly. • Attendance or agenda for Year Head Meetings every week. • Engage in early dialogue with students and parents. (Year Head, Deputy Principal, Principal). The School's internal processes provides individualised support (Year Head, Deputy Principal). • School Multi Agency support processes used to help those students having difficulty at home and to help them re-engage student in school.
